Disability Services recognizes that disability reflects diverse characteristics and experiences and is an aspect of diversity integral to society and the university experience. To that end, Disability Services strives to promote the full participation of people with disabilities in all areas of university life. We collaborate with students, faculty, staff, and community members to create diverse learning environments that are usable, equitable, inclusive and sustainable. Disability Services is committed to upholding the legal, ethical, and philosophical principles of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the 1990 Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the ADA Amendments Act of 2008 (ADAA).

As a student with a disability at George Mason University, you have the right to receive the following services:

- Reasonable and effective accommodations according to your disability through an interactive intake and supporting documentation.
- Equal access to educational and co-curricular programs, services, jobs, activities, and facilities available through the university.
- To be treated with respect and dignity and receive equal and fair treatment.
- Confidentiality in all matters of your documentation and educational record.
- Information reasonably available in accessible formats.
- Access to a grievance process either through an informal or formal process. Please visit ds.gmu.edu/grievances for more information.

As a student with a disability at George Mason University:

- I understand that it is my responsibility to initiate services with Disability Services.
- I will provide appropriate documentation of my disability to Disability Services.
- I understand that it is my responsibility to request accommodations in a timely manner from Disability Services to ensure that they are in place as soon as possible. I also understand that I may request accommodations at any point during my time as a student at George Mason University.
- I am responsible for working in collaboration with Disability Services staff to determine reasonable accommodations.
- I am responsible for advocating for myself and monitoring my own progress, and will alert Disability Services if I need assistance with accommodation related issues as soon as possible.
- I understand that it is solely my responsibility to request my Accommodation Letters each semester. I will contact Disability Services by email, in person or via phone to request my Accommodation Letters. I understand issuing Accommodation Letters can take up to 3 business days.

- I understand accommodations are not retroactive and start the time Disability Services sends my Accommodation Letters, per my request, to the Law School.
- I will keep my documentation, contact and disclosure information up to date with Disability Services.
- I agree to abide by the Mason Honor Code. Please visit the Mason Honor Code \(http://oai.gmu.edu/the-mason-honor-code\) for additional information.
- I acknowledge that Disability Services staff members can provided me with information regarding additional academic support resources available on campus.
- I agree to notify Disability Services if I need textbooks or other printed material, enlarged or otherwise formatted. I understand that Disability Services recommends this contact occur at least four weeks prior to the first day of classes of each semester. I agree to provide copies of my syllabi to assist in the delivery of these services.
- I understand that it is solely my responsibility to contact Disability Services if I have any classroom accessibility issues that I cannot solve independently.

I understand my rights and responsibilities as a student with a disability at George Mason University. I was informed of the services, activities, and programs offered by Disability Services. I understand the processes explained to me by Disability Services staff.
