Educational Overview
2025-2026 Academic Year

The Executive Functioning Program (EFP) offers individualized, comprehensive academic supports to motivated GMU students with disabilities related to executive functioning. The program guides students through the initial transition into university life and assists them in building skills necessary to navigate college and post-graduation.

The purpose of this form is to offer a thorough assessment of a student's academic, behavioral, and social strengths and challenges within the university environment. Please provide all relevant information throughout this form to assist the team in evaluating the support the student may require should they be accepted into the program.

Thank you for your help in providing valuable information to assist the EFP team. This is a confidential response form and will only be reviewed by EFP/Disability Services staff

Educational Overview forms are due by Friday, May 16, 2025.
